DESCRIPTION

A modern and spacious standout in East Dallas, this newly built single-family home delivers rare value in one of the city's fastest-moving neighborhoods near the historic Munger District. Designed for everyday living and effortless entertaining, the light-filled layout features white oak hardwoods throughout, a sleek gas fireplace, full stainless appliance package and crisp white quartz surfaces in the kitchen and baths. Accordion sliding doors blur the line between inside and out, opening to a covered patio and large private backyard for weekend hangs and dinner parties. The primary suite is your own retreat—think oversized walk-in closet with built-ins, soaking tub, frameless glass shower, and dual vanities. Upstairs adds serious flexibility with three additional bedrooms, two bathrooms, a huge second living area, and a bonus room with balcony - ideal for a Peloton space, storage, media or playroom. A 2-car attached garage plus extra off-street parking keeps life simple. From here, you're just minutes to Baylor Medical Center, Deep Ellum's nightlife and dining scene, Uptown, Lower Greenville, and Downtown. Urban convenience, new construction, and a price point you rarely see in this pocket - 503 N. Peak Street is a solid move for anyone who loves convenient city living without the compromise.
