DESCRIPTION

Welcome to this stunning East Dallas home nestled in the beloved Casa Linda Forest neighborhood, known for its towering trees, character-rich streets, and vibrant community spirit. This property has been thoughtfully updated, blending modern touches with charming curb appeal. Mature trees provide shade for the front yard, while a gorgeous, extra-wide stained wood door invites you inside. The interior radiates mid-century vibes, highlighted by an abundance of natural light streaming through large windows. The floor plan is ideal for both everyday living and entertaining, featuring seamless transitions between indoor and outdoor spaces. A spacious courtyard patio is visible from multiple rooms. The large, beautiful private backyard features a heated saltwater pool, ample seating areas, and gorgeous views of the heavily wooded greenspace behind the lot. It is the perfect spot for relaxing or hosting family and friends. Extensive renovations include a stunning new kitchen, beautifully updated bathrooms, and new windows. The floor plan offers flexibility with two living rooms and two dining areas. One of the dining spaces is generously sized and boasts a wall of stone-topped built-in cabinetry that matches the kitchen, which is open to it. The large family room boasts a vaulted ceiling, a cozy fireplace, and a wall of windows that overlook the backyard. Upstairs, a spacious bonus room with a wet bar and a full bath provides endless possibilities—it can serve as a fourth bedroom, a living area, or a home office. Additional features include wood floors, a Jack-and-Jill bathroom between two downstairs bedrooms, and a rear-entry attached garage. The HVAC system is just three years old. One water heater was replaced in • the other one is brand new. The pool heater, pump, and gas line were replaced four years ago. This beautifully updated home offers character, flexibility, and modern comfort in one of East Dallas' most charming neighborhoods.
