DESCRIPTION

Your dream ranch is waiting in the heart of North Texas! This stunning 232-acre property in Jacksboro offers the perfect blend of natural beauty, privacy, and versatility for the serious outdoorsman, rancher, or homebuilder. The land features gently rolling topography, mature oak trees, and open pastureland—ideal for cattle, hunting, recreation, or building your dream home. This is a true hunter's paradise. The landscape is tailor-made for wildlife, with excellent cover, natural travel corridors, and multiple ideal locations for blinds and feeders. You'll find healthy populations of whitetail deer, turkey, and dove, while a stocked tank provides quality fishing and water for livestock. Currently used for hunting and cattle, the property is well-suited for year-round outdoor enjoyment. The varied terrain offers great opportunities for hiking, riding, or ATV use. With road access and utilities nearby, it's ready for your vision—whether that's a weekend escape, family ranch, or a legacy homestead. Only 90 minutes from Fort Worth, this rare offering combines functionality, beauty, and location in one exceptional North Texas package. Whether you're seeking productive land or a private retreat, this property delivers.
