DESCRIPTION

This oversized 2-bed and 3.5-bath, 1-story home, which has been used as a 3-bed residence, is filled with natural light and special touches that provide character and warmth. Nestled on the westside of Ft Worth and only feet away from the banks of the Trinity River, this home is part of the sought-after Crestwood neighborhood. Crestwood neighbors enjoy an incredible location for walkability to the Trinity River and trails for walking, biking, outdoor adventures, as well as parks, retail, restaurants, and all things Ft Worth. Maybe best of all, the neighbors value the comfort of feeling tucked away in a sweet spot that shows off incredible sunsets and tree-lined streets. River Crest, several new and noteworthy developments, plus Westside Village, which is a new visionary project that is already underway, are less than 2 miles from the front door of this corner lot home. Step inside to welcoming entryways and discover warm hardwood floors throughout. Near the entry is a cozy dining room or additional living area with a fireplace that is ready for great conversation. The kitchen is filled with views of the spacious back lawn and natural light that especially highlights the breakfast space. It is perfect for happy morning moments and table games with friends. The family room feels open and large, making it a great space to relax and entertain. The second bedroom with en-suite bath is found just down the hall. A gracious primary bedroom is its own separate retreat, including a sitting area and coffee bar with access to the backyard. Additionally, there is a flexible space with its own en-suite bathroom and endless use possibilities. The opportunities for outdoor living are found all over the property. You'll love the large front and back yards shaded by gorgeous mature trees. With celebrated dining and retail minutes away and a visionary new development on the horizon, this property combines privacy, space, and exclusivity in a setting that simply cannot be duplicated.
