DESCRIPTION

A huge backyard and a newly remodeled home. A very unique opportunity to own a home in an established neighborhood where the properties are huge and the values are solid and where the HOA is voluntary. This home is a rare situation for of a number of reasons. In 2025 this home received a new roof, a new HVAC, all new paint, all new windows, all new treatments, all new luxury flooring with a 50 year warranty, the pool was plastered, the primary bathroom was completely updated and remodeled, the kitchen was redone, and the entire upstairs was remodeled to seem new. The romantic and peaceful owner's suite is a custom layout and even upstairs where an elevated view of the park like backyard is there for enjoyment like a vacation and security is there even with windows open at night. The backyard is a private retreat featuring a sparkling pool, patio gazebo for cover, expansive green space, and room to customize for entertaining, recreation, or relaxation. Homes with this level of high end renovation, lot size, and location rarely come available and a property like this at this price in this area does not exist. Compare the price per sq. ft. on this home to new construction unless you intend to settle for way less and live on a postage stamp lot without a pool or grass to play on or even an older dingy dump. A circular drive creates an impressive look with abundant parking, including space for specialty vehicles and toys. A giant room downstairs could be converted into another primary suite or an entertainment room including a wet bar or bath because the plumbing is there now. It's truly move-in ready. Enjoy quick access to shopping, dining, sports venues, top-rated schools, major highways, DFW Airport, and convenient proximity to both Dallas and Fort Worth. Take a look for yourself, have fun and see if your life might become measurably better by living here. This is truly one of a kind and the price reflects that. Take a look, compare to other homes and you be the judge
