DESCRIPTION

Designed for refined rural living, this exceptional 5+ acre estate in Northwest ISD offers privacy, open space, and no HOA—a rare opportunity to enjoy elevated country living. The property includes 2.8 fully fenced acres, featuring a custom fence with walk-through and drive-through gates, ideal for a variety of rural lifestyle needs. The residence showcases an open, light-filled design that captures sweeping pastoral views from nearly every room, creating a seamless connection between indoor comfort and the surrounding countryside. A wood-burning fireplace anchors the main living area, adding warmth and timeless character. Step outside to an expansive custom deck surrounding an above-ground pool, perfectly positioned for entertaining or relaxing while taking in the private acreage. A 30x40 shop with electricity and dual-side access provides exceptional flexibility for equipment, hobbies, or storage, while RV hookups add convenience for guests and travel enthusiasts. Inside, the split-bedroom floor plan is designed for privacy, with the primary suite thoughtfully separated and featuring dual walk-in closets. Secondary bedrooms are tucked away on the opposite side of the home. A large utility room and abundant storage throughout enhance everyday functionality, while a storm shelter inside the home with electricity provides peace of mind. This property delivers the perfect blend of luxury, space, and rural freedom, offering a private retreat where comfort, craftsmanship, and open land come together beautifully.
