DESCRIPTION

Take a look at Coca Cola Hunting Ranch, an outstanding 100-acre recreational property in Jack County, Texas, known for producing quality whitetail deer with strong genetics. The ranch is easy to navigate thanks to an established interior road and a network of well-used trails. A live-water creek runs along the west side, bordered by mature timber that provides reliable water, cover, and natural travel corridors. The land features a great mix of two open pastures and mature timber, creating excellent habitat diversity. With fencing already in place on three sides, the property could be lightly improved for cattle grazing while preserving its exceptional hunting and recreational appeal. Electricity is available along the road, offering the potential to build a home or cabin. Conveniently located just 15 minutes from Jacksboro and Cundiff, approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes from Fort Worth, and 1 hour and 22 minutes from Keller, with easy access to Highways 114 and 59. All showings are by appointment only.
