DESCRIPTION

Timeless Living on the Open Waters of Lake Palestine Light pours through every room of this refined lakefront residence, where unobstructed views of Lake Palestine stretch endlessly from every vantage point. Designed to breathe and built to last with steel-frame construction, this home strikes a rare balance between enduring craftsmanship and effortless warmth. Spanning two generous lots, the 3-bedroom, 3.5-bath floor plan opens gracefully from kitchen to living space, inviting natural light and open water views deep into every corner. Three true primary suites, each thoughtfully separated for comfort and independence, offer the kind of privacy rarely found in lakefront homes. Two suites reside on the main level with dedicated full en suite baths. Step downstairs to a third primary suite and a lower level built for gathering, where a polished bar with two distinct seating areas sets the stage for entertaining and a versatile flex room offers space for a studio, workshop, craft room, or personal retreat. The home's airy, connected design ensures no suite feels tucked away from the views. The outdoors are never far away. A sprawling porch wraps nearly the entire home, framing the lake from every angle, while a covered patio provides a shaded retreat for quiet mornings and long evenings. An enclosed greenhouse extends the seasons for those who love to grow. Outside, this property works just as hard. A two-stall boathouse with an electric boat cover keeps your vessel protected and launch-ready. A 21x22 shop offers serious storage and workspace for tools, toys, or lake gear. And with two lots providing generous space, there's room to breathe, landscape, or simply enjoy the privacy that lakefront buyers dream about. Two lots. Open water. Sunset views. This is the one that ends the search.
