DESCRIPTION

This home offers ample space for every member of the family with a generous 3,187 square feet of living space. Located within the highly desirable Midway ISD, the property benefits from an unbeatable location in the Sendero Springs neighborhood, which is minutes from Central Texas Marketplace, Cinemark Theaters and access to I35. Upon entering, you are greeted by hardwood floors in the spacious dining room for weekend dinners or holiday gatherings. Additional features include a large, open living area complete with a wood-burning fireplace, kitchen with substantial storage, large island, and a bar area. Adjacent to the kitchen is a pantry that leads to a large laundry room. The main floor also includes a guest bedroom as well as full guest bathroom. An elegant banister stairway leads to an open loft area suitable for use as a play space, study area, media room, or office space. Upstairs, there are three additional bedrooms and an additional full bathroom. The master suite, located upstairs as well, is thoughtfully designed to feel secluded from the other rooms thanks to the well-planned layout. The master suite includes ample closet space and a spacious bathroom with separate shower and tub areas. With ample space for a growing family or someone who simply loves to entertain, this home is perfect for those who love a little space in their lives. Schedule your showing today.
