DESCRIPTION

Welcome to this fantastic home just outside the city limits, offering peaceful living while still being close to everything you need. This spacious 3-bedroom, 2.5-bath home features a desirable split floorplan and has been meticulously maintained by its original owner. The backyard is perfect for relaxing or entertaining, with a large patio deck and pool (pump replaced 1 year ago) that has hosted many gatherings and is ready for new memories. An herb garden and native, low-maintenance trees and landscaping add charm and natural beauty to the property. Inside, the kitchen was beautifully remodeled about two years ago with quartzite countertops, a workstation sink, a double oven, and a convenient butler's pantry—perfect for both everyday living and entertaining. The home also offers two living areas, a formal dining room, a spacious study that could easily function as a fourth bedroom, and ample storage. Attached to the garage, you'll find a large flex room with electricity and water (no sewer), ideal for a workshop, hobby space, home gym, or creative studio. It was previously used for dog breeding but offers endless possibilities. There's also a 50-amp RV hookup located on outside the garage. While the backyard is great for entertaining, the property extends beyond with additional land, mature trees, and storage sheds, which provide plenty of room to explore and enjoy the outdoors. Additional updates include a 2.5 years old roof and a recently serviced septic system. Best of all, this meticulously maintained home is priced below a recent appraisal, offering immediate equity for its new owners. Don't miss the opportunity to make this well-cared-for property your next home.
