DESCRIPTION

Spacious and designed for everyday living, this 4-bedroom, 2.5-bath home in Garland offers approximately 3,400 square feet on a generous lot—giving buyers the kind of space, layout flexibility, and long-term upside that's hard to find at this price point. Located in an established neighborhood of Oakridge, this property backs to Duck Creek Golf Club, offering peaceful views and a unique sense of privacy that sets it apart. You're surrounded by everyday convenience and lifestyle perks that make this area so desirable, with nearby outdoor escapes like Holford Park and easy access to shopping, dining, and daily essentials at Richardson Square. Medical care is just minutes away at Medical City ER Garland, and commuting across DFW is seamless with quick access to major highways. Buyers love this pocket of Garland for its balance of quiet residential streets and unbeatable accessibility. Compared to other homes in the neighborhood, this property stands out for its size, lot, and opportunity to customize—perfect for buyers who want more space, more value, and a location that continues to grow in demand.
