DESCRIPTION

Stately light brick home with dramatic arched entry, grand double doors, and three-car garage located in the Villages at Hurricane Creek in Anna. Step inside to a stunning two-story foyer highlighted by a cascading crystal chandelier and an open second floor overlook that creates an impressive first impression. Designed by First Texas Homes, the popular Stonehaven floor plan offers a spacious and versatile layout with multiple living and entertaining spaces. The main living area is filled with natural light from sliding glass doors overlooking the backyard. The gourmet kitchen features a large California island, pot filler, stylish backsplash, and open flow to the main living areas—perfect for gatherings. Upgraded Denton and Sonos speakers enhance the first-floor entertaining space. The oversized primary suite features tray ceilings and a spacious ensuite bath with walk-in shower, bench seating, handheld shower wand, and bidet. A unique passthrough connects the primary bath to the oversized walk-in closet and an adjoining flex room ideal for a nursery, workout space, or private retreat. Upstairs you'll find additional bedrooms, a loft-style living area overlooking the downstairs, and a dedicated theatre-style media room with wet bar. With its distinctive architectural features, generous layout, and multiple flexible living spaces, this home offers an excellent opportunity to personalize and make it your own.
