DESCRIPTION

This exceptional David Weekley model home throughout the years has been thoughtfully enhanced with premium upgrades and expanded living spaces, offering a truly one-of-a-kind opportunity. The home includes an additional garage and an enlarged utility room—features not reflected in the listed square footage—along with over 500 square feet of added living space per the seller. Designed for both comfort and luxury, the main level features a stunning primary suite and a private office complete with a built-in fireplace. The expanded utility room has been transformed into a functional and stylish space with a wet bar and wine refrigerator. Upstairs, you'll find a spacious media room with an adjacent wet bar, a dedicated workout room with a sauna, three generously sized bedrooms, and a large secondary living area connected by dual staircases. Security and peace of mind are paramount, with a state-of-the-art security system and another feature you must see in person. The chef's kitchen is a true highlight, featuring dual ovens and a six-burner gas cooktop—perfect for entertaining or everyday living. Step outside to your own private retreat, where the backyard evokes a resort-style experience with a pool, spa, outdoor kitchen, and cozy fireplace. Situated on over an acre, the property also boasts a circular driveway and a four-car garage, offering both convenience and impressive curb appeal. With countless upgrades and exceptional features throughout, this remarkable home is truly a must-see.
