DESCRIPTION

Live above it all at Montgomery Plaza, where historic architecture meets refined living in the heart of Fort Worth's coveted West 7th district. Residence #2638 is a beautifully curated 2-bedroom, 2.1-bath condo that stands apart with elevated finishes, custom details, and breathtaking southern-facing views stretching over Trinity Park toward TCU — delivering spectacular sunset light that pours through the home's signature oversized windows. Designed for both everyday living and effortless entertaining, the open-concept layout centers around a stunning chef's kitchen featuring Sub-Zero refrigerator, generous prep space, under cabinet lighting, and seamless flow into the dining and living areas. Just beyond, a striking custom wet bar with rich cabinetry, cabinet and counter lighting, and beverage refrigeration creates a true entertaining moment — equal parts functional and unforgettable. The interiors feel layered and intentional, with curated lighting, tailored wall coverings, and high-end finishes throughout. The guest suite is enhanced by custom built-ins, offering flexibility as a sophisticated home office, library, or private retreat. The spacious primary suite provides a serene escape with a blackout window shade and spa-inspired bath, while the additional powder bath adds convenience for guests. Set within the iconic Montgomery Plaza — a landmark Fort Worth residence — amenities include a resort-style rooftop pool, fitness center, media room, concierge services, and secure parking, all just steps from premier dining, shopping, and entertainment. This is lock-and-leave luxury with architectural character, exceptional light, and a level of finish rarely found — all in one of Fort Worth's most vibrant urban settings.
