DESCRIPTION

Beloved family home in a long-cherished neighborhood known for charm and distinctive homes, lovely lots, mature trees, and delightful location. It's a very walkable neighborhood, with dozens of restaurants, great shopping, grocery stores, and a public library - all within easy walking distance. Nearby Ridglea Country Club is an important jewel in the Ridglea universe, offering two extraordinary golf courses, Olympic size pool, tennis, work-out facility, and countless opportunities for indoor and outdoor entertainment. It's the kind of neighborhood people never want to leave. The architecture is traditional mid-century with 4025 square feet, 4 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms, 2 living areas, kitchen, and 2 dining areas. Built in 1951 on a park-like half-acre lot, it reflects the post war American Dream of a nice, large home with a big yard for kids to play, a neighborhood park and a safe, pretty environment (think Beaver Cleaver's house!). The current owners raised their family in this house for the last 24 years. Both living areas are spacious and have handsome flagstone fireplaces anchoring the spaces. There's abundant natural light and beautiful views front and back. Original wood flooring has the warm patina of time adding character and appeal. The kitchen has granite counter tops, a built-in banquette in the breakfast area, and parquet flooring. There is a charming bedroom on the ground floor with its own sitting area and bath. Three additional bedrooms and 3 baths are on the second floor. The primary suite is huge, and offers many remodeling possibilities. The owners added a grand pergola outside creating an ideal setting for entertaining, drinks, outside dining, and peaceful reflection. There is a 2-car garage. Solar panels increase the home's energy efficiency. The lot is approx. 109' x 235'. Big lots in desirable areas are scarce. Only 3 homes for sale on the near-west side with lots >.5 acres: $859,900, $3,150,000, and $5,750,00.
