DESCRIPTION

Five acres, no city limits, and a setup that's ready for animals, projects, and a whole lot of fresh air... this is the kind of property that feels like a breath of freedom the second you pull in! Located in Maypearl Independent School District, this 3,366 sq ft home offers a layout that keeps up with real life. Downstairs you will find a comfortable living space, a spacious primary suite with an ensuite bath and oversized shower, and a large utility room with a convenient half bath. Upstairs brings two bonus living areas that can easily flex into additional bedrooms, offices, a game room, or workout space. Step outside and it only gets better. The front of the property is lined with mature trees, creating a welcoming first impression, while the back half opens into usable pasture just waiting for your plans. With no city restrictions, you have the freedom to truly make it your own. Pipe fencing outlines the yard and extends through the rear acreage, and you are already set up with a chicken coop, small animal pen, pole barn, and three garden beds.
