DESCRIPTION

Nestled at the end of a tranquil cul-de-sac, this stunning Steve Roberts custom home offers breathtaking views of a greenbelt, creek, and mature trees. Designed with an exceptional flowing layout, the home features spacious rooms, abundant storage, and gleaming hardwood floors throughout. The gourmet kitchen is truly a chef's dream, featuring a built-in Sub-Zero refrigerator, six-burner Viking gas cooktop, double ovens, warming drawer, microwave, and a large island. It may be one of the largest kitchens you will find in a Plano home. A sunny breakfast area invites relaxed mornings, while the adjoining formal living and dining spaces, highlighted by a fireplace, create an elegant setting for entertaining. Just off the kitchen, the warm and inviting den offers custom built-ins, a walk-in wet bar, and a fireplace, making it the perfect place to gather and unwind. A richly appointed study with pocket doors adds sophistication and privacy. The spacious primary suite on the main level includes room for a sitting area, offering comfort and seclusion. Over the past year, the home has been thoughtfully updated with all new Pella windows, fresh paint throughout, and new carpeting, enhancing both comfort and energy efficiency. Additional amenities include a whole-house emergency generator, dishwasher, disposal, and ice maker. Designed for entertaining on a grand scale, this exceptional home has hosted elegant events for more than 80 guests while still maintaining an intimate and welcoming ambiance. Once featured in Plano Profile magazine, this remarkable property combines timeless elegance, unparalleled views, and outstanding convenience. A true haven in the heart of nature.
