DESCRIPTION

5859 Meaders is a home that understands balance—scale, proportion, and the quiet luxury of thoughtful design. Crafted by MCR Builders with architecture by Curtis Burlaw and interiors by LDI Studio, the residence unfolds across 6,854 square feet with a sense of ease that feels both elevated and entirely livable. The main level is anchored by a serene primary suite overlooking the pool and hot tub, complemented by a guest suite, study, and lounge. The kitchen is refined and beautifully composed. Calacatta Vagli marble surfaces, custom cabinetry, and a suite of Sub-Zero and Wolf appliances create a setting that is as functional as it is elegant. A secondary prep kitchen and walk-in pantry allow the main space to remain pristine. The living and dining areas transition seamlessly, with a striking wet bar and a butler's pantry detailed in glass and brass adding depth. The formal dining room, framed with classic paneling and a sculptural chandelier, feels timeless. Upstairs, three ensuite bedrooms, a playroom, and a bonus room provide flexibility without sacrificing cohesion. The primary bath is beautifully executed, layered in marble with Visual Comfort lighting, dual water closets, expansive closets, and a soaking tub positioned for quiet moments. Outdoors, the home extends effortlessly—an elegant pool and hot tub anchor the space, complemented by a fully appointed outdoor kitchen with grill, refrigeration, heaters, fans, and retractable screens. It's a seamless continuation of the interior, designed for both entertaining and retreat. This is a home defined not by excess, but by intention.
