DESCRIPTION

Experience country living at its finest without sacrificing urban comforts in this expansive North Fort Worth home perfectly situated near beautiful Eagle Mountain Lake. Designed to capture sweeping views and seamless indoor and outdoor living, this residence offers a rare combination of space, craftsmanship, and function. Inside, you'll find two spacious living areas, one on each level, along with a thoughtfully designed walk out basement that fills the home with natural light on every level. Both floors open onto two full length decks that span the entire back of the home, providing panoramic views and the perfect setting for morning coffee or sunset gatherings. Car enthusiasts and hobbyists alike will appreciate the three car garage plus an additional golf cart with workshop, offering plenty of room for storage, tools, lake and trail gear. While the property has limited yard space, the surrounding views and tranquil atmosphere more than make up for it. The 260 acre Marion Sansom Park with its 11 miles of hiking and bike trails is just a few miles away with an abundance of shopping, dining and entertainment options. Whether as a full time resident or a weekend getaway, this one of a kind home is a true retreat just a short drive from the water's edge and Fort Worth attractions. Home is located in Saginaw Eagle Mountain ISD, however buyer and buyer's agent to verify schools along with square footage. Assumable VA loan available.
