DESCRIPTION

Situated on a quiet cul-de-sac in the sought-after Northaven Park neighborhood, this extensively updated home sits on a spacious lot and offers an exceptional blend of charm, community, and seamless access to nature. A scenic creek and charming bridge just steps away provide direct access to Cox Lane Park, while Northaven Trl and the dining and retail of Preston & Royal are only mins away. The home has undergone many upgrades, highlighted by a complete redesign of the primary suite. The primary bath has been fully reimagined, feat. custom cabinetry, quartz countertops, designer lighting, and an oversized frameless glass shower with dual shower heads. Wood flooring has been added to the primary bedroom and closet, complemented by a custom closet configuration for optimal organization. Additional bathroom updates include a remodeled Jack & Jill bath with new cabinetry, quartz countertops, mirrors, sconces, fixtures, and toilet, as well as a stylish powder bath featuring a wallpaper accent wall, new lighting, and updated fixtures. Mechanical and energy efficiency improvements include a new HVAC system (2023), a new outdoor condenser, and attic spray foam insulation, significantly enhancing comfort and efficiency. Interior updates include repainting of remodeled areas, with a full home repaint completed in 2021. Exterior enhancements include an extended concrete patio with outdoor TV connection, an 8-foot privacy fence, a driveway gate, an upgraded insulated garage door system, and an enhanced covered parking structure designed to accommodate larger vehicles. This is a rare opportunity to own a truly turnkey home where both design and infrastructure have been carefully considered—offering a move-in-ready lifestyle in one of North Dallas' most established neighborhoods. Last but not least, you will enjoy a strong sense of community, with Halloween serving as a signature annual event that transforms the street into one of Dallas' most festive destinations.
