DESCRIPTION

Welcome to 1205 Shady Creek Drive—where timeless charm meets everyday luxury in one of Euless's most distinctive communities. Tucked inside the highly coveted Morrisdale Estates, this stunning single-story home offers over 3,400 square feet of thoughtfully designed living space—an increasingly rare find for those who crave both space and convenience without the stairs. From the moment you arrive, the semi-circle driveway sets the tone, offering not only a grand first impression but also exceptional functionality with abundant parking for guests, gatherings, and everyday living. Step inside and you'll feel the difference—generous living areas, seamless flow, and the kind of layout that adapts beautifully to both quiet evenings at home and lively entertaining. Every corner of this home invites comfort, connection, and possibility. Out back, your private retreat awaits. The diving pool is the centerpiece of the backyard—perfect for long Texas summers, weekend barbecues, or simply unwinding under the stars. It's a space designed for making memories, whether hosting friends or enjoying peaceful moments of your own. What truly sets this home apart is its location within Morrisdale Estates—a neighborhood where no two homes are alike, and pride of ownership is evident at every turn. It's a community full of character, warmth, and connection, known for its engaging events throughout the year that bring neighbors together in meaningful and memorable ways. Zoned to the highly desirable HEB ISD, this home offers not just a place to live, but a lifestyle to fall in love with. If you've been searching for something unique, spacious, and rooted in a vibrant community—this is the one that feels like home the moment you arrive.
