DESCRIPTION

Tucked away on 2 fully wooded acres in Midlothian, this one-owner builder's custom home offers the privacy, space, and craftsmanship that today's buyers are searching for. Surrounded by mature trees and set back from the road, this property delivers a rare sense of seclusion while still being conveniently located near Midlothian amenities, schools, and commuter routes into the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Inside, the home features approximately 2,800 square feet with 3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, and a dedicated office. Thoughtful architectural details are found throughout, including custom stone archways, wood beams, and elevated ceiling treatments that add warmth and character. The living room is anchored by a stunning fireplace, creating a welcoming space for gathering and everyday living. The kitchen is designed for both functionality and storage, offering ample cabinetry and workspace for daily use and entertaining. A barrel ceiling transition leads into the private primary suite, while the secondary bedrooms include a well-designed Jack and Jill bathroom that provides both convenience and privacy. One of the most exceptional features of this property is the impressive 2,400 square foot detached shop. Complete with a full bathroom and private office, this space is ideal for a home based business, workshop, additional storage, or hobby space. Opportunities like this are increasingly rare in the Midlothian real estate market. If you are searching for acreage, privacy, a custom-built home, and a versatile shop space, this property delivers a unique combination that is difficult to replicate. Schedule your private showing today to experience everything this Midlothian property has to offer.
