DESCRIPTION

You know that feeling when a home just fits—not because of what it has, but because of how it lives? This is that home. From the moment you step inside, the layout pulls you in without trying too hard. The hardwood floors stretch across the entire downstairs, guiding you through spaces that feel both connected and intentional. To one side, a dedicated office creates a quiet place to focus when needed. To the other, a formal dining room sets the scene for holidays, dinner parties, and the kind of moments that turn into traditions. At the center of it all, the home opens up in a way that was clearly designed for gathering. Conversations carry easily from room to room, whether you're hosting a full house or just enjoying a slow evening in. And with two bedrooms downstairs—including the primary—you have the kind of flexibility that actually works for real life... whether that means guests, multigenerational living, or simply having space that adapts with you. Upstairs, the energy shifts. Three additional bedrooms give everyone their own corner, while the game room becomes the go-to for everyday hangouts and the media room sets the stage for movie nights that feel like an experience, not just a routine. Freshly painted and thoughtfully maintained by its original owner, this home doesn't feel like something that's been passed around—it feels cared for, consistent, and ready for what's next. And set within the highly sought-after Castle Hills community, you're not just buying a home—you're stepping into a lifestyle where everything you need is already within reach. Because the best homes don't just check boxes... they change the way you live once you're in them.
