DESCRIPTION

Modern Updates + Lake Access in Richardson ISD — Cul-de-Sac Living in Springpark Central Located on a quiet cul-de-sac in the established Springpark Central neighborhood, 6701 Beth Ct offers a rare combination of privacy, natural surroundings, and fully updated interiors—all within Richardson ISD. Just steps from the neighborhood lake and walking trails, this home is positioned for both everyday convenience and outdoor lifestyle. Inside, the home opens with double-height ceilings and expansive windows that bring in consistent natural light throughout the main living areas. The layout is open and functional, with clear sightlines between living, dining, and kitchen spaces—ideal for both daily use and entertaining. The kitchen has been fully updated with modern countertops, stainless steel appliances, and streamlined shaker cabinetry, offering a clean, contemporary feel without sacrificing storage or usability. Major exterior upgrades—including new siding, windows, and doors—provide both curb appeal and long-term efficiency. Residents of Springpark Central have access to community amenities including a pool, clubhouse, pickleball courts, and maintained green spaces, all within walking distance. If you're looking for an updated home in a quiet, established neighborhood with direct access to outdoor features and strong school zoning, this property is worth a closer look.
