DESCRIPTION

A rare blend of elegance and character, this single-story residence in Northwood Hills Estates channels a refined French Traditional sensibility, timeless, layered, and effortlessly inviting. Step inside to soaring ceilings and rich French brown hand-scraped hardwoods that carry through the main living spaces. The home opens beautifully into the stunning great room which is expansive, light-filled, and designed as the natural gathering place for both everyday living and entertaining. Tucked away right off of the great room for entertaining, the private wet bar has its own story, once the setting of a gathering attended by Joan Crawford, a rare and memorable detail that gives the home a personality you simply can't replicate. The kitchen offers functional convenience and flows effortlessly with the living areas and backyard to make seamless indoor and outdoor living. With a spacious dining area and an absolutely breathtaking formal living room, reading room, or sun room in the front of the home, you have tons of flexibility for sophisticated living. Continue on to the spacious secondary bedrooms, a cozy study, and a private primary suite that provides a quiet retreat with a well-appointed bath, dual vanities, and dedicated dressing area. The outdoor spaces of the home are picturesque with a pool ideal for Dallas summers, plenty of space in the backyard for other activities, and a circular driveway that enhances both curb appeal and everyday ease in the front of the home. Thoughtfully updated while preserving its architectural charm, 6515 Calais is a home with presence, story, and a layout that lives beautifully—all in one of North Dallas' most established neighborhoods.
