DESCRIPTION

Step into the charm of yesterday with all the comfort of today in this beautifully crafted vintage-inspired home, built in 2017. Thoughtfully designed to capture the character of a classic residence, this home blends timeless architectural details with modern construction and amenities. From the moment you arrive, you'll notice the inviting curb appeal—complete with traditional lines, warm materials, and carefully selected finishes that evoke a sense of history and permanence. Inside, the home features rich hardwood floors, detailed millwork, and elegant fixtures that echo the craftsmanship of a bygone era. The Fairmount neighborhood is an historic district and there are guidelines that must be followed and changes must be approved for any alterations to the exterior of houses within the neighborhood.
