DESCRIPTION

The tree swing gives this classic Tudor a storybook feel, blending historic charm with modern updates that provide everything you need. This lovingly maintained home exceeds expectations and is situated in a highly desirable area for good reason! Located on a charming block just a short walk from TCU and its sporting events, 3128 Odessa Ave is perfect for TCU families and those looking to settle in the coveted Tanglewood Elementary School attendance zone. The home features unique character, including an original mottled jade-tile fireplace, French doors, and preserved built-ins. Thoughtful updates have been made to essential spaces, merging historic allure with contemporary convenience. With three bedrooms and a dedicated office or flex space, there is ample room to adapt to your evolving needs—whether you require a study area, a work-from-home setup, an extra bedroom, or accommodations for guests. A luxurious kitchen with abundant storage and professional-grade Thermador appliances seamlessly connects to the main living areas, making everyday life and entertaining easy. Two designer-curated bathrooms, renovated in 2023, enhance the home's beauty and functionality while preserving original features and authenticity. Additionally, a finished basement provides valuable bonus space that can serve as a media room, workout area, or private retreat with a full bath—a rarity in this area! Outside, a heated, sparkling backyard pool and spa enhance the lifestyle appeal, making it perfect for enjoying Texas summers and winter use! The two-car detached garage includes a workbench, storage space, and a half bath, plus an upstairs bonus room for guests or recreation. The home's layout and features can be easily modified to meet future needs, making it a versatile choice for a range of lifestyles. This home is rich in character and flexibility, offering bonus spaces at every turn!
