DESCRIPTION

Discover timeless appeal and versatile living at 3211 Glasgow Terrace, a distinctive 4-bedroom, 3.5-bath residence offering approximately 3,485 square feet on an oversized corner lot in a well-established neighborhood surrounded by mature pecan trees. Built in 1972 and thoughtfully maintained, this property blends classic character with functional updates, making it an ideal option for buyers searching for space, flexibility, and outdoor lifestyle potential. Inside, the inviting layout features soaring ceilings, expansive windows, and an abundance of natural light that enhances every room. The open-concept living areas are designed for both everyday comfort and seamless entertaining, while the kitchen provides extensive cabinetry, generous counter space, and a layout that supports efficient meal preparation and gathering. A unique three-way split bedroom arrangement offers exceptional privacy and flexibility, with multiple suites that can serve a variety of needs such as guest accommodations, work-from-home setups, or hobby spaces. Step outside to experience a backyard retreat that feels both productive and peaceful. Established fruiting plants, including blueberries, raspberries, blackberries, and plums, create a rare garden setting that adds both beauty and function. The covered porch offers a welcoming outdoor living area ideal for relaxing or hosting, while the large lot provides room to expand or customize. Additional highlights include a durable 40-year roof installed in 2019, abundant storage throughout, and an oversized garage with extra workspace. Located in a mature setting with convenient access to daily essentials, this property presents a compelling opportunity for those seeking character, space, and long-term value in a desirable location. This is a rare find.
