DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the Willow Springs neighborhood of Heath, TX, this exceptional home offers breathtaking views of a private stocked pond. A grand two-story foyer with a sweeping curved staircase creates an impressive first impression. The thoughtfully designed main floor includes a private guest suite with a full bath, a powder bath, a versatile living room ideal for a study or music space, a formal dining room, kitchen, and family room. The dining room is a standout, featuring a cozy gas log fireplace and picturesque lake views through expansive windows. The kitchen is both stylish and functional, showcasing an electric glass cooktop, double convection ovens, a large farmhouse sink, quartz countertops, and marble backsplash. Casual dining is effortless with a spacious breakfast nook with built-in china hutch, and counter-height bar seating. The adjacent family room is warm and inviting, complete with built-in cabinetry, a stone gas-starter fireplace with raised hearth, a built-in desk which could double as a dry bar, and a striking double tray shiplap ceiling. The first-floor primary suite is a serene retreat with tray ceiling, and offering tranquil lake views through large bay windows. The ensuite bath features dual vanities, a freestanding soaking tub, separate shower with rainfall shower head, and a generous walk-in closet. Upstairs, you'll find a game room that opens to a covered balcony, along with three additional bedrooms and two full baths, providing ample space for family and guests. Step outside to your own private oasis. The beautifully landscaped yard features a heated pool with spa and water feature, fire pit, and an expansive covered outdoor living area complete with a gas grill, beverage refrigerator, built-in ice chest, misters, and a fireplace—perfect for year-round entertaining. Home has been almost entirely remodeled. This home is a true gem on a rare premium waterfront lot in Heath, TX.
