DESCRIPTION

Arrive along a quiet, tree lined approach, where the home begins to reveal itself gradually, set within mature landscaping that gives the property a sense of presence. From the start, there is a feeling of balance between the home and its surroundings, where the setting and greenery frame the property and become as much a part of the experience as the home itself. Inside, the home is arranged with a natural sense of flow, where each space connects with ease. The entry opens with height and light, while formal spaces introduce structure and scale. Straight ahead from the entry, an office is positioned with intention, overlooking the patio and pool, creating a workspace that feels both private and connected to the outdoors. The kitchen has been thoughtfully updated, blending clean lines and warm finishes, and opens to the family room, making it a central place for gathering. The primary suite is positioned with privacy in mind, where the pace of the home slows and the space feels more still, complemented by an updated spa like bath that continues the sense of calm and refinement. Upstairs, a game room adds a flexible space for everyday living or entertaining. Four additional bedrooms, each with its own private bath, are arranged with intention, allowing every space to feel purposeful within the overall design. Outdoors, the backyard becomes the highlight, where the setting begins to take over. The covered patio opens to the pool and spa, while the oversized green space stretches beyond, with mature trees and layered landscaping creating a natural backdrop. It is a space that feels expansive yet private, where the landscaping and scale come together to create a setting that is both relaxed and quietly elevated. Although it feels settled and private, the home is just moments from the high school and within Carroll ISD, offering a rare combination of space, setting, and a lifestyle that is distinctly Southlake.
