DESCRIPTION

This home is IT! It has everything you can imagine. From the moment you pull into the gated community and park in your 3-car garage, there's a sense of arrival. It's private, polished, and just removed enough from the noise of everyday life. Immediately you step into a charming long hallway which immediately sets the tone. Clean lines, warm wood floors, & subtle luxury. It's the kind of entry that makes both guests and Amazon packages feel important. To your right, a dedicated office that actually makes you want to sit down and get things done. From there, the home leads to two guest bedrooms with a shared bathroom. Across from the bedrooms is a large barn door leading to the media room. This media room is not only the perfect size but also perfect for game nights, movie marathons, or just a place to shut off the world. It's cozy in the best way. From there, you pass a half bath to the STUNNING living room. It feels like a breath of fresh air. Vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, natural light, and a fireplace that makes winter feel like a choice. It's easy to picture mornings with coffee or hosting people who suddenly don't want to leave. Look right, and the kitchen becomes the main character. It's so perfect for a big meal or Uber Eats. The primary suite & additional bedrooms are thoughtfully spaced, giving everyone privacy without feeling disconnected. 4 bedrooms and 3.5 baths mean there's room for guests, family, or that one friend who just needs a place. And then there's the backyard. This is where the house really shines. A pool that's clean, modern, and actually usable. The outdoor living area makes afternoons turn into evening gatherings. Smoker and grill going, feet in the water, music in the background. And let's not overlook the generator, because peace of mind doesn't show up in photos! Also, the turf is lower maintenance than your ex. At the end of the day, this home isn't trying to impress you; it will win you over with how awesome it is to live here.
