DESCRIPTION

Tucked beneath a canopy of mature trees, this Hurst home offers the kind of space, updates, and layout that simply makes everyday living feel easier. Inside, the spacious living room easily accommodates larger furniture and gatherings, all anchored by a beautiful brick fireplace and a striking wood-beamed vaulted ceiling. The kitchen is filled with natural light thanks to a large front-facing window, creating a bright and welcoming space to start your mornings. Butcher block countertops, ample storage, and a functional layout make it as practical as it is inviting. One of the standout features is the flexibility of the primary suite. In addition to the bedroom, there's extra space that could easily serve as a home office, nursery, sitting area, or additional storage—whatever fits your season of life. A charming bay window adds even more character and functionality. Both secondary bedrooms are well-sized and offer oversized closets, giving you the storage space that's often hard to find. Step outside and you'll see where this home really shines. The oversized backyard is framed by mature trees that provide incredible shade during the Texas summers. A large concrete patio with a built-in cover creates the perfect space to relax, entertain, or simply enjoy watching kids or pets play. The rear-entry garage, tucked behind an electric gate, adds an extra layer of privacy and security. This is a home that blends thoughtful updates with flexible living spaces and a backyard designed to be enjoyed year-round—all in an established neighborhood within the highly desired Birdville ISD!
