DESCRIPTION

Tucked into the sought-after Silverleaf community, this custom one-story residence offers a rare blend of thoughtful design, elevated finishes, and meticulous care. Positioned on a corner lot, the home delivers a refined presence with a layout that lives beautifully. All bedrooms are privately separated, with three featuring their own ensuite baths, creating an ideal balance of comfort and privacy for guests or multi-generational living. Rich hand-scraped hardwood floors extend through the main living areas, now seamlessly carried into the executive office and primary suite for a cohesive and elevated aesthetic. The kitchen anchors the home with custom site-built cabinetry, granite surfaces, and professional-grade appliances, dishwasher replaced January 2025, opening naturally to the main living spaces designed for connection and everyday living. The primary suite offers a peaceful retreat with a spacious sitting area and a well-appointed bath featuring a jetted tub, frameless glass shower, dual vanities, and a generous walk-in closet. Architectural details throughout include extensive trim work, crown molding, solid core doors, and built-in features that reflect the craftsmanship of a true custom home. Recent updates provide confidence and long-term value, including a new roof installed summer 2025, both HVAC systems replaced in 2025, and a refreshed front entry with newly stained door and updated hardware. Built with efficiency in mind, the home is ENERGY STAR certified and part of the Green Built Texas program, offering enhanced performance, comfort, and energy savings. The outdoor spaces are designed for ease and enjoyment, featuring covered patios and a manageable yard that complements the home's low-maintenance lifestyle. A rare opportunity to own a meticulously maintained, single-story custom home in one of Keller's most desirable pocket neighborhoods.
