DESCRIPTION

Nestled among mature trees in an established North Dallas neighborhood, this elegant residence offers a rare blend of timeless design, generous space, and a resort-style outdoor setting—all within Plano ISD and moments from the Dallas North Tollway and President George Bush Turnpike. From the moment you enter, soaring ceilings and immediate sightlines to the backyard oasis create a striking first impression. Walls of glass frame the sparkling pool and multiple outdoor living areas, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor lifestyle ideal for both entertaining and everyday living. Thoughtfully designed, the home features four spacious bedrooms, each with its own private ensuite bath. The primary suite is conveniently located on the main level and offers a tranquil retreat with a sitting area and cozy fireplace, while a private guest suite downstairs provides ideal accommodations. Multiple living and dining areas enhance the home's flexibility, including a formal living room with fireplace and a spacious family room with a wet bar. A dedicated downstairs office showcases custom built-ins, a vaulted ceiling, and plantation shutters, creating an inspiring and private workspace. The large, beautifully appointed kitchen serves as the heart of the home, featuring a built-in refrigerator, double ovens, walk-in pantry, and generous prep space. Perfectly positioned between two dining areas, it also offers direct access to a side patio for effortless entertaining. Upstairs, dual staircases lead to additional living spaces ideal for a game room, library, or additional office, along with two bedrooms and a laundry chute. Outdoors, the private pool and multiple seating areas create a serene backyard oasis surrounded by lush landscaping. A three-car garage adds convenience and ample storage. Ideally located a short distance to shopping and dining, this home offers an exceptional combination of privacy, accessibility, and elevated North Dallas living.
