DESCRIPTION

Charming and full of character, this home offers a unique opportunity to create something truly special. Built in an earlier era, it features classic elements and a layout that provides a solid foundation for those looking to personalize a space to their own style. The property offers a comfortable living environment with natural light and functional spaces throughout. The kitchen and living areas provide a great starting point for everyday living or future updates, allowing the next owner to bring their own vision to life. Enjoy the benefits of a spacious outdoor area with a generously sized backyard that offers plenty of room to relax, garden, or entertain. The setting provides flexibility for a variety of uses and adds to the overall appeal of the property. Ideally situated just a few blocks from downtown, as well as nearby shopping, dining, and major roadways, the location has been a standout feature. A great opportunity for those looking to own a property with character, potential, and a location that supports a variety of lifestyles.
