DESCRIPTION

A taken-to-the-studs renovation distinguishes 2016 Wing Point within Willow Bend Lakes, blending the character of a custom home with the confidence of new systems. Updates include electrical, plumbing, roof, gutters, downspouts, and extensive re-landscaping, along with a whole-home water filtration system—thoughtful improvements that support both daily living and long-term value. The interiors are grounded in an organic, restrained palette with warm materials and cohesive, intentional finishes throughout. Tall ceilings and expansive windows bring in abundant natural light, while the kitchen, dining, and living areas connect seamlessly. The living room is anchored on a gas fireplace with a wet bar just to enhances the home's ease for entertaining. Privately situated, the primary suite offers a quiet retreat with a spa-inspired bath featuring floating vanities, a freestanding soaking tub, oversized dual walk-in shower, and direct access to a secluded patio. The walk-in closet is generously sized with ample storage. All secondary baths have been remodeled to the same standard, creating a consistent, elevated feel throughout. A flexible living space—well suited for an office, gym, playroom, or secondary lounge—captures greenbelt views and opens directly to the backyard. Outside, two distinct yard spaces mirror the home's level of care, with regraded grounds, a new retaining wall and fence, French drains, and artificial turf installed in 2025. One yard overlooks the greenbelt, while the other offers a more private, enclosed setting with room for a pool. Zoned to coveted Centennial Elementary with an idyllic location that offers quick access to all the shops and restaurants that Plano has to offer, as well as major travel arteries to support an easy commute.
