3 baths

DESCRIPTION

Located steps from River Crest Country Club, 4621 Lafayette sits in one of Fort Worth's most established and consistently sought-after neighborhoods. With quick access to Camp Bowie, I-30, the Trinity Trails, and neighborhood favorites like Hudson House, Dale's Donuts, and Lucille's, the home offers an ease to daily life that is hard to replicate on the west side of Fort Worth. This updated Craftsman bungalow includes four bedrooms and three full baths, with a practical, flexible layout. Two bedrooms are on the main level, with two additional bedrooms upstairs, offering separation without sacrificing function. Multiple living areas support both everyday living and entertaining, with a natural flow throughout. The primary suite is spacious and opens directly to the landscaped backyard. The updated primary bath includes dual vanities, a large walk-in shower, soaking tub, dual closets, and additional storage. Natural light carries through the space, giving it a warm, comfortable feel. The kitchen connects easily to the main living areas, and the scale of each room is both comfortable and well-proportioned. Outdoor living is a highlight, with a well-sized yard and covered patio suited for dining, gathering, or quiet use—an extension of the home rather than an afterthought. A one-car garage and additional covered off-street parking complete the property. For those looking in River Crest, it is hard to match this location—just moments from the Trinity Trails, Camp Bowie, and Fort Worth's Cultural District.
