DESCRIPTION

Built in 2021, this home offers contemporary construction, energy efficiency, and current design. As you arrive, it's strong curb appeal is enhanced by over $9k in professionally designed landscaping with Texas native plants. Beyond the visual appeal, this creates the benefit of low-maintenance outdoor living, that requires no covering during winter freezes. The open floor plan is both functional and stylish, allowing you to cook, host, and gather without ever feeling disconnected. The primary suite is on the main floor, delivering a quiet retreat with a spa-inspired bathroom complete with a soaking tub and oversized shower. With 4 bedrooms, a dedicated office, a media room, and a secondary living area, this layout offers the benefit of convenience and flexibility for work, guests, or growing households. The media room and secondary living space are upstairs, making it perfect for movie nights, game days, or creating a separate entertainment zone. This separation of space gives everyone room to spread out while still staying connected. Equipped for modern living with an EV charger in the garage and solar panels, providing reduced energy costs and increased efficiency, translating to real monthly savings and long-term value. The Trimlight permanent exterior lighting along the front gives you the ability to customize colors for holidays, game days, or special occasions. These lights can even be synchronized to music, creating a dynamic, personalized display year-round without the hassle of seasonal installation. The highly desired location gives convenient access to major highways, shopping, dining, and entertainment while still enjoying a quiet, neighborhood feel. Zoned to Birdville ISD, highly-rated Walker Creek Elementary and Smithfield Middle School, known for strong academic performance and student achievement. This is more than just a home, it's a space designed to give you flexibility, efficiency, and comfort, all in a location that continues to grow in demand.
