DESCRIPTION

1 acre in Ennis, TX featuring a 5 bedroom, 3.5 bath home with 3,226 sq ft built in 2000, a 24x40 insulated workshop with electricity, 2 car carport, and 3 car garage. Recently upgraded concrete driveway provides additional parking space and convenience. The backyard offers a resort style pool with waterfall and water slide, along with recently added rubber cap surfacing for durability and comfort around the pool and patio, all surrounded by mature pecan trees. Fully paid off solar panels provide long term energy savings. This beautifully maintained home offers a functional open floor plan designed for everyday living and entertaining. A welcoming entry with upgraded rubber cap flooring creates a clean, durable, and modern first impression. As you enter, you find a dedicated office space, an open living room with a brick fireplace, abundant natural light, and large windows overlooking the backyard. The kitchen includes granite countertops and ample cabinetry, with a dining area that flows seamlessly for gatherings. The laundry room includes a sink and storage cabinets. The first floor features a split primary suite for added privacy. One secondary bedroom connects directly to the primary closet, offering flexibility for a nursery, gym, or flex space. A full bathroom serves the secondary bedrooms, along with a half bath with convenient outdoor access to the pool. Upstairs includes a media room with balcony access, an additional bedroom or game room, and a full bathroom, creating a private second level retreat. Major updates include recently completed foundation repair with transferable documentation, two water heaters replaced within the last two years, HVAC system serviced twice yearly across three AC units, and septic system serviced every four months with the seller covering an additional year, and freshly repainted. Located in a quiet neighborhood with a dead end feel and easy access to Highway 287. Everything a Texas home has to offer on a full acre in Ennis.
