DESCRIPTION

Set on nearly half an acre and backing to a greenbelt, this property offers a rare combination of privacy, outdoor living, and usable space in Mansfield. With no rear neighbors and an elevated vantage point, the backyard becomes a true extension of the home - centered around a huge deck overlooking the natural greenbelt. This is not a typical backyard. The scale and positioning of the deck create a setting designed for entertaining, hosting, or simply enjoying quiet evenings with unobstructed views. Large-lot homes with this kind of outdoor infrastructure and privacy are increasingly difficult to find in this area. Inside, the home is built for flexibility, function and beauty with the wall of windows and soaring stone fireplace. Greenbelt views from the inside the home! Kitchen has updated look with double ovens, granite counters and large pantry. Primary bedroom is situated on the first floor with a full guest suite or additional primary upstairs. Multiple living areas allow for separation of space without sacrificing connection. A dedicated media room provides the ideal setup for movie nights, sports, or a private viewing experience, while the game room offers additional room for gathering, recreation, or the ability to flex to your needs. Wood look flooring downstairs and new carpet upstairs. The layout supports a variety of lifestyles - whether you need space for entertaining, working from home, or accommodating guests. Each area feels intentional, giving the home a sense of usability that goes beyond square footage alone. Storage is a standout feature throughout the property. From oversized closets to additional storage areas, the home is designed to keep everyday living organized and efficient. The oversized 2.5-car garage, provides ample room for larger vehicles plus a dedicated workspace for all your hobbies and projects. Enjoy the nearby community pool & playground for recreation close to home.
