DESCRIPTION

This distinguished French Provincial residence is a rare expression of elevated design where every surface, material, and architectural detail has been meticulously curated to an uncompromising standard of luxury, refinement, and craftsmanship. Located in highly acclaimed HPIISD and zoned to Bradfield Elementary this property boasts white oak hardwood floors, custom millwork, imported reclaimed hand-hewn beams, and Moroccan unlacquered brass fixtures creating a warm architectural statement, elevated by steel-and-glass doors and expansive new windows that fill the home w natural light. The kitchen is a refined centerpiece anchored by a Taj Mahal quartzite waterfall island, equipped w integrated Sub-Zero refrigeration, a Wolf 48-inch gas range, double ovens and custom white oak cabinetry designed for elevated entertaining. Designer lighting by Visual Comfort, Amber Lewis and Ralph Lauren adds sophistication throughout while Venetian plaster fireplaces serve as sculptural focal points, including a living room fireplace adorned w Calacatta Vagli Gold and Moca Crema travertine. The primary suite is a 5-star retreat w private balcony and fireplace, double vanities, a dramatic wet room w soaking tub, dual rainfall showers and custom closets. Secondary baths showcase rare stone, artisan zellige tile, and curated finishes while the statement powder bath features custom wallpaper, Blue Roma Quartzite and Moroccan marble. The home also offers a formal dining room, private study, second living area and dual utility rooms. System upgrades include a new commercial-grade TPO roof, Lennox and Ruud HVAC systems and two tankless water heaters. Outdoors, impressive steel and glass accordian doors usher you to a resort-style setting complete w renovated pool and heated spa clad in zellige tile w fresh coping and plaster, lush landscaping, turf, sod, and privacy fencing w stucco columns. A rare blend of elevated materials and timeless design in one of Dallas's most prestigious enclaves.
