DESCRIPTION

Tucked away on a private, tree-covered acre in Keller, this fully reimaged estate delivers the kind of lifestyle buyers rarely find in today's market modern luxury, usable land, and the freedom to live, work, and entertain without compromise. From the moment you arrive, the architectural presence stands out. The freshly redesigned exterior, dramatic entry, and mature canopy of oak trees create a setting that feels elevated, secluded, and unmistakably custom. Inside, the home blends clean contemporary finishes with warm, inviting spaces designed for both refined entertaining and comfortable everyday living. Expansive windows frame the natural surroundings while filling the home with light. The open layout flows seamlessly to multiple outdoor living areas, including an oversized covered patio and elevated deck overlooking the property. Whether hosting guests, enjoying quiet evenings under the trees, or creating your own backyard retreat, this property offers the space and flexibility to make it your own. What truly separates this estate is the land and functionality. In a market where usable acreage in Keller is increasingly rare, this property delivers a full acre with endless potential. The detached shop building provides exceptional versatility for car enthusiasts, hobby space, storage, a home business setup, or future customization opportunities. Every detail of the property reflects thoughtful updates, timeless design choices, and the kind of privacy that luxury buyers are actively searching for. And while the setting feels tucked away from everything, you're still just minutes from Keller's premier shopping, dining, schools, and major commuter routes. This is more than a remodeled home on acreage it's a private luxury retreat that offers space, flexibility, and a lifestyle that's becoming nearly impossible to replicate in Keller.
