DESCRIPTION

There's a difference between a home that simply has space... and a home that was truly designed for the way you live today. From the moment you walk in, the sweeping curved staircase and expansive ceiling heights create a sense of openness that immediately sets the tone. Every inch of this home was thoughtfully designed giving everyone room to gather, unwind, and still enjoy privacy when needed. What makes this property especially rare is the dual primary suite layout, with one suite downstairs and another upstairs. Whether accommodating extended loved ones, long-term guests, or simply creating flexibility for evolving lifestyles, this floor plan delivers options that are increasingly difficult to find. The upstairs retreat feels like its own private wing with a spacious game room, and an oversized media room ready for movie nights, game days, or quiet evenings in. Downstairs, formal and casual living and dining spaces create a natural flow for entertaining without sacrificing the warmth and functionality needed for everyday living. The kitchen and main living areas blend seamlessly together, making the home feel inviting rather than overwhelming despite its impressive size. Additional highlights include laundry on both levels, a central vacuum system surround sound, walk-in closets throughout, a 3-car garage, covered patio, and a backyard that offers the perfect balance of outdoor enjoyment and easy maintenance. This is multigenerational living at its finest practical, and beautifully executed in a way that feels intentional from beginning to end. Homes with this kind of versatility, presence, and thoughtful design are few and far between offering the opportunity to create a lifestyle that adapts beautifully to every season of life. Eligible for 1% Closing Credit with preferred lender.
