DESCRIPTION

Privately tucked behind the gates of an exclusive Argyle community, this custom-designed residence delivers the rare combination of architectural character, luxury finishes, and indoor-outdoor living that feels equally suited for elegant entertaining and quiet everyday life. A pre-listing inspection already completed for added buyer confidence. Zoned to the sought after Argyle ISD. Positioned on a private street the home immediately impresses with its dramatic glass front entry, soaring vaulted ceilings with rustic wood beams, white oak flooring, designer lighting. The chef's kitchen was designed to impress with a massive quartzite island, wall-to-ceiling textured tile backsplash, floating shelves, commercial-style gas range, double ovens, built-in ice maker, oversized GE Café built-in refrigerator, built in wine cabinet, and walk-in pantry. The open-concept layout flows seamlessly into the dining and living areas anchored by a floor-to-ceiling tiled fireplace, custom built-ins, and expansive glass doors leading to the covered outdoor retreat. Designed for year-round entertaining, the outdoor living space features its own fireplace, built-in grill, wine fridge, dining area, ambient lighting, fans, and views of the treed backyard. A separate concrete pad with electrical is already in place for a sauna or other outdoor addition if you choose to forgo the sauna. The primary suite offers peaceful backyard views and a spa-inspired bath with chandelier-lit soaking tub, illuminated mirrors, oversized multi-spray rain shower, and custom walk-in closet. Two guest suites include private ensuite baths. While the front office with custom sliders makes an ideal work-from-home space or stylish mahjong room. Upstairs, the oversized loft with dry bar and built-in microwave creates the perfect game room or media lounge. Additional highlights include a three-car epoxy-floor garage, mudroom with built-in desk area.
