DESCRIPTION

Welcome to 2100 Antibes Drive — a fully transformed single-story home where no detail was overlooked. Situated on a generous corner lot in an established Carrollton neighborhood, this home delivers luxury finishes at every turn, and only minutes from major shopping and dining. The light-filled interior opens to vaulted ceilings with statement exposed black beams and a opulent ceiling fan, anchoring the spacious living space. Wide-plank LVP flooring flows seamlessly throughout, complemented by custom board-and-batten wainscoting and a built-in wet bar with wine rack — perfectly appointed for entertaining. The chef's kitchen is a showstopper: custom painted cabinetry with arched raised-panel doors, quartz countertops, striking marble-veined hexagon tile backsplash with under-cabinet lighting, a wine fridge, double ovens, electric cooktop, and stainless steel refrigerator — all designed with function and style in mind. The adjacent dining area is bathed in natural light beneath a modern gold sputnik chandelier. The primary suite bath is a true retreat, featuring a freestanding soaking tub set against dramatic dark marble, natural wood slat feature wall, floor-to-ceiling white marble tile, and an oversized double-head walk-in shower with dual handheld fixtures, pebble stone flooring, and matte black hardware throughout. Outside, enjoy a private, fully fenced backyard with mature trees, a covered patio, and manicured landscaping — a quiet escape with room to grow. Schedule your private showing today.
