DESCRIPTION

Come see this one owner well loved home. You will be glad you did! They have treasured their years they have lived in this home and wonderful neighborhood located within convenient distance to award winning elementary school, beautiful Breckinridge Park and all its amenities including trails, soccer fields, baseball fields and more. They have enjoyed living on their cul-de-sac street with no thru traffic. They have made some changes in last few years to update their home including opening up the kitchen and family room area Which has been great for entertaining. Kitchen area has 8x4 island with pull out space racks, can seat 4+ bar stools, large pantry with many pull out deep shelves for ease in finding things, abundance of cabinets with deep drawers for pots & pans, barn sink, wine rack, wood block prep area. Master bath has been redone with new large shower with 2 shower rain heads. Hall bath has been updated with new sinks and lighting. For energy efficiency solar shades have been added to several windows which has made sufficient reduction in temp in these areas. These are a few highlights of this lovely home. Stop by today to see if you want to be 2nd owner of this well loved home.
